Be On for that Albion Debate To-night

The Normal Nine Loses to Assumption by Score 7-4

CARLSON IN BOX FOR HOME TEAM. HOME TEAM LOSES GRIP IN EIGHTH INNING.

Bell's Men Come Back Strong in Last Inning

Draper Rings Up Three Bagger In First Inning. Warring Nabs Two Flys.

By G. E. Banks.

M. S. N. C. opened its baseball season rather inauspiciously by taking an untimely walloping from Assumption by the tune of 7-4. We may frankly say that the game was absolutely no good. While the game was close up to the eighth inning, it was not a good presentation of our great summer pastime. Carlson was in the box for the home team and he breezed along fairly well for a few innings—then he started to weaken and the visitors ran wild in the eighth—getting seven hits for five runs. Bell's men came back in the last frame and grabbed three runs on two hits and three base on balls. Sprat of Assumption weakened as did Carlson but he did it just a little too late to do much good. The game was featureless except for Warrings collecting two good catches of flys in the ninth and Sprats strike out record. The little Canadian made 12 of our warriors whiff the breezes. Carlson bagged seven the same way.

Things started to look our way in the first when Draper slammed the pill for three sacks, Powers walked and Carlson brought Draper home with a single. Things looked pretty good with Carlson going, great guns—striking out the first five men to face him. In the third Assumption got two runs by a single by Draper, a stolen base, a pass to Kent, an error by Powers and a single by Dunne. The game was fairly good until the disastrous eighth when Assumption ran wild. Sprat started things off with a single, Kent got on through an error by Carlson. Then the fireworks cut loose. Dun singled, Sylvester landed on one for two sacks. Burns hit, Babcock, Donnelly and Jacques follow suit. When the smoke cleared away, after ten men had faced the pitcher in one inning.

MISS THOMSON WINS D. A. R. SCHOLARSHIP

ENTITLES HER TO COURSE AT THIRD ENCAMPMENT OF NATIONAL SCHOOL AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

Miss Marion Thomson of the sophomore class, who has been granted by the State Committee of the D. A. R., a scholarship entitling her to a course at the third encampment of the National Service School, leaves today for Washington, D. C., where the camp is to be held under the auspices of the Woman's Naval Service.

The National Service School was organized in 1916 for the purpose of instructing women in the needs of the country during war times, and of training them in various forms of patriotic service. The present camp which will be held from April 22 to May 31, will offer courses in agriculture, gardening, and food conservation; in reconstruction arts and crafts; and in typewriting, telegraphy, telephone operating, and forms of business activity in which women are taking the place of men called to the colors.

Miss Thomson expects to devote herself to the course in reconstruction work, which will fit her to train disabled or maimed soldiers and sailors in various manual arts, such as basketry, net work, chair caning, pottery modelling, and weaving. This course includes, besides instruction in these crafts, a mastery of the Braille typewriter for the blind, and a study of dietetics and the preparation of special diets for the sick. There will also be opportunity to study current events and engage in Red Cross work.

Altho the aim of the camp is in no way militaristic, the young women enrolled will dress in uniform and will live under strict discipline. Their day will be as long and as rigidly planned as any soldiers'. They will have much work and little play. But they will be fitting themselves to serve their country. Miss Thomson is to be congratulated on her opportunity.

Ambitious.

LATIN EXHIBIT IS HERE NEXT WEEK

IS BEING SHOWN IN MANY CITIES, ON WAY TO CALIFORNIA NOW. CAN BE SEEN IN ROOM 35.

Students and their friends are invited to visit Room 35 during the week beginning April 22 to view the Latin Exhibit. This exhibit was prepared by the Public Library of New York, N. Y., and has been sent to educational centers in various parts of the country. It is stopping here en route to the east from California. It shows in a remarkable and convincing measure, by means of diagrams, charts and pictures, the vital relation existing between Latin and modern life and education. After seeing this exhibit students studying Latin will be convinced that they are making a splendid use of their time and those without Latin will feel the necessity of taking up this essential subject at the earliest opportunity. Remember the place and the time.

SUMMER TERM IS ANNOUNCED

SESSION BEGINS JUNE 24 AND ENDS AUGUST 2.

Extra Teachers

General Lectures This Year Exceptionally High Grade

The announcements for the Normal College summer session are being sent out. The term begins June 24 and ends Aug. 2. Among the extra teachers in the faculty are Prof. W. N. Isbell of the Detroit Central high school, Supt. W. B. Arbaugh of Ypsilanti and H. L. Latham of Adrian in the department of education; Mrs. Pearl M. Storrey of Highland Park in the department of expression; Miss Leulah Anthony of the Grand Rapids schools in the fine arts; Miss Belle Morrison of Lansing schools in industrial arts; Mary Cawood of Battle Creek schools in geography; Principal Stanley Morris of Ypsilanti, Jonathan Scott of the U. of M., and G. A. Bechtel, principal Detroit Northern high school, in the department of history; James A. Kerr of the U. of M. in Latin; F. S. Vaughn of Saginaw high school in Natural Science; and DeForrest Ross of Ypsilanti high school in Physics. Coach E. D. Mitchell, now of the U. of M. will return as instructor in physical education. Especial attention will be given to the county normal work, the county normal instructors engaged being Anna Adair, Port Huron; Ellen Anderson, Flint; Margaret Battle, Muskegon; Zella Downey, Big Rapids; Frances Farham, Petoskey; Grace McDaniel, Cadillac; and Ida Tallmadge, Marshall. The training school will have three outside teachers only, and those Normalites—Miss Grace Pattison and Miss Elizabeth K. Wilson, who have been at Teachers' College, New York; and Mrs. Philip M. Keen, superintendent at St. Clair. Lectures on grade methods will be given by Miss Wise and Miss Elizabeth Wilson.

The course for teachers of backward and mentally deficient children has as faculty, Prof. C. M. Elliot of the Normal College, Misses Gertha Williams and Bernice Leland of the Martindale Normal training school of Detroit; Dr. H. A. Hayes and Dr.

First Rehearsal Augurs Well for Success of Vaudeville

"THIS NATION WILL NOT FALL SAYS PREXY"

PRESIDENT McKENNY GIVES FINE TALK AT "Y". PROVES NATION CANNOT PERISH

Free Speech Saving Grace

If Germany Wins It Will Mean The Disintegration of England and France

"It is interesting to note the fact that the Christian people of the world are springing at each other's throats, and are both praying to the same God for victory," said President McKenny in his address to the "Y" Sunday in Starkweather Hall.

His most forceful statements are as follows:

"Why should not modern nations fall as did the nations of the ancient world and of the middle ages? Alexander built up a great empire and it fell, as had the Egyptian and Babylonian empires before him. Then came Rome with her absolute sovereignty of the world. The Empire of Charlemagne fell and so on. Now Germany has built a great empire and has caught the pernicious vision of world dominion by force and a rule of blood and iron. We are now in the throes of this great struggle and the outcome can be predicted by no one. Of course we are confident and determined that this great power shall be crushed and so completely so that no other nation will attempt anything similar.

"If Germany wins it will mean the

DEUT CART BEFORE HORSE IN FRANCE

PULL LATCH DOWN TO OPEN DOOR INSTEAD OF LIFTING IT AS DO IN "GOD'S COUNTRY," SAYS PONTON

Now on Repose

Describes Life of Peasants. Every Fit Man Wears a Uniform.

France, March 5, 1918.

"You were certainly right when you said that I would be glad to hear from an old classmate, for it really is one of the very best letters that I have received and by all means the newest. And that news is what really counts over here for we are living a very strained and unnatural life here and entirely cut off from things that we love so well, except for the letters that we get from our kind friends at home.

"I am glad that things are going so well at the Normal, but I am very surprised to hear of a girl being president of the Senior class. It is quite an innovation in affairs and in the face of the traditions of the college. But this is probably all due to the effect of the war. By all means I do not mean that a girl is not as efficient as a boy but it is different.

"I certainly would like to walk up Cross street and see some of those old familiar faces. But those faces will be gone by the time that I get back.

"We were up at the front about five months after which we went on repose for a few days rest. We are now on this repose in a little French village in a very famous part of France. The people are mostly peasants. They are very agreeable, kindly people, in a simple goodly way. Of course all men of military age and physical ability are wearing the French uniform. The houses are mostly tile or brick, with tile roofs and tile floors. Some merely have hard ground floors. Pretty much everything here has the cart before the horse. Instead of lifting a latch to open a door like we do in 'God's country' they pull it down.

"Well, here I must close."

Very sincerely,
Ponton,
First Lieut.

Mean Comment.

"What do you think Mr. Blunt said to Miss Oldgirl when she remarked she would prefer to be a spring bride?"
"What did he say?"
"That he advised her to select April 1 for any date of the kind, for it would be such a good joke on the man."

HAVE LIST OF FEATURES ON PROGRAM ARE SNAPPIEST THING YET. ACTED WITH FINE INTERPRETATION

Old Fashioned Square Dance Big Number

Harry Lauder II, With a New Found Partner in Shape of Hans From Holland Will Make You Laugh

In announcing the S. C. A. Vaudeville last week it was predicted that the whole thing from beginning to end would be the greatest event that had struck the campus. This week it can be guaranteed for the first rehearsal has been held and the way the numbers followed smoothly after one another and the pep that the actors put into them all augurs and makes it certain that those who do not spend two bits for their own pleasure and the "Y" are going to make a big mistake.

A few more of the numbers on the program will now be divulged so that the students and faculty may get an insight into the fun that is locked up in the future and will be burst open a week from today. For instance, just think a moment and put your imagination on the interesting subject of a square dance. Did you ever see the real old fashioned square dance danced in the old fashioned way? If you have you know that it is about the most entertaining thing that could be devised. Not to mention the music that is so lively that you cannot keep your feet still, there are the gay comical costumes, and the antics of the dancers themselves that are a whole circus. Surely you would not want to miss this.

Scotchman and a real one. He can make you laugh at your grandmother's funeral. Well, we have Harry Lauder II, all engaged and signed up for a line of stunts with his new found partner, Han from Holland. Jest, songs, songs that are funny, songs of all kinds, songs that are a la solo and songs that are a la duet. All of these loaded with wit and the keenest humor.

Who is there that does not like to see a good play? All those who do not can skip this number, but all who want a really classy, up-to-date play, that is staged by the Minerva Society, are going to be right on the front row on that night and take it all in.

Lindow Sails For France This Week

Palmer Lindow, Editor of the News last year and prominent on the campus in other ways, leaves for France this week on the ship Westfield, carrying flour and heavy timber. The vessel will leave N. Y. and will be gone two or three months, traveling in the center of a convoy as she carries no arms.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

Miss Eleanor Richardson, student Field Secretary, of the Y. W. C. A., will visit our association next week Tuesday and Wednesday and will speak at the vesper service on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Morse, pastor of the Baptist church, has invited the College Y. W. C. A. to the evening service in that church on Sunday, the 21st. There will be a special sermon to young women. Members of the Y. W. C. A. will go directly to the church, and be seated together there.

Kappa Gamma Phi

The Kappa Gamma Phi Sorority held its formal initiation at the home of Mrs. O. O. Norris, 1002 Ellis St., Friday, April 12.

The initiates were Miss Jesse Laird as honorary member; Miss Sara Lewis and Miss Florence McLouth, faculty members; and Misses Dorice Pascoe and Ethel McIntyre. A luncheon and toasts followed the ceremonial.

Write A Letter.

In the many letters that come into the College and to the News there is always a deep note of appreciation to be found on the part of the man in the ranks who has received a letter from some of his friends still in civil life. So many say, who are right on the front line, that letters are the only pleasure that they have. There is not one thing that will hearten up the soldier more than a letter from home. It relieves the pangs of homesickness and brightens his whole horizon.

Is it not possible to set aside time enough once each week or oftener to write to some one whom we know in the service? We know that it is said that we are so busy and all of the hundred and one other excuses that can be spoken so glibly. But let us remember that he is giving all and we are giving our money only, and that at good interest. We hear it spoken so often, "I wish I could get into this fight and do my share." If one feels this way certainly one can find time to write.

When one soldier, it is said, receives a letter and the others in the company do not, it casts a gloom over all of the rest and the request is made for the recipient to go elsewhere and not read it before them.

Therefore let us resolve right now that we are going to write and do what we can to strengthen the morale of our fighting men, which is one of the most vital things that we can do.

Household Arts Dept.

Several girls of the Household Art Department have already been placed in excellent positions for the coming year. Among them are Florence Bell, who will teach in Algonac, Besie Myers in Royal Oak, Annie Deane in Ithaca and Ann Park in Kendallville, Indiana.

The Household Arts dance will be held April 27 in the gymnasium. To secure tickets please see Ruth Zerkow. The ticket price will be 50c a couple.

Last week Thursday Miss Blackman spoke at the City Hall in Ann Arbor. She gave a practical talk with demonstrations on the use of wheat substitutes.

The relief work done last quarter by this department will begin again this week Wednesday. To make it possible for the girls to work a longer time supper will be served at school.

SNEEZE, YOUR BRAINS ARE DUSTY

By Socrates' Valet

Dear Seekers of Wisdom:

1. Allow it to be humbly suggested to you that seats in Assembly be reserved for the fellows, since a few poor, scattering men are likely to be hemmed in any moment by a row of sorority girls.

2. 'Tis said that in this great crisis of the nation's history, it is arms that are binding this nation together.

3. It doesn't appear to us that buying Liberty Bonds is showing much patriotism when you receive better interest than you would at a bank, it is just as safe and it keeps you from wasting your substance in riotous living.

4. We cannot imagine any future life in which the Kaiser would feel at home. He would be like a wolf in Heaven and Satan in Haydes. The former place is uncalculably too good and the latter not nearly bad enough.

5. A man can have all kinds of letters after his name showing that he obtained his education by degrees, but there is only one degree that counts. The D. G. Deliver the Goods.

6. Zeke is quite a handsome looking chap when he gets a mask on.

7. The S. C. A. Vaudeville that is coming was prophesied by old Soc. He claimed at the time of his prognostications that it was going to be some affair.

8. We think that Holland wishes now that she had lived up to her agreement to loan Uncle Sam those ships.

Peace be with thee,
Socrates' Valet.

Campus Gossip

Mrs. Jennie Maxon-French of Tacoma, Wash., has arrived in the city and will enter the Normal. She is now at the home of Mrs. Chas. N. Holmes.

Miss Clio Munford, formerly of the Normal Training school office, has begun her new duties in the Michigan Central railroad offices in Detroit.

Miss Madge Quigley played Thursday evening before the State Federation of Musical Clubs at Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Annis Gray and Miss Alice M. Lowden will take part in a Red Cross benefit concert at Ann Arbor Monday evening.

Earl Rhodes, formerly of this city and now superintendent at Winnetka, Ill., visited Ypsilanti friends this week. He engaged Miss Wilda Bayes of the Normal senior class as a grade teacher at Winnetka.

Miss Madge Quigley, formerly of the Normal College is a scarlet fever patient in the contagious hospital on Cross street. She is being cared for by Miss Hannah Thumm, who has been at this place on similar cases, continuously since February 11th.

Fred A. Jeffers of the Normal, '91, gave a very emphatic talk on the war, at the local Rotary Club, a few days ago.

Prof. W. P. Bowen will teach during the summer at the state normal college at San Jose, Calif.

Miss Ella M. Gardner has been re-elected for her third term of three years, county superintendent of schools of Monona county in Iowa.

"The Submerged Nationalities of Europe," was the subject of an interesting talk by Prof. Pray before members of the Twenty Club Tuesday evening. The meeting was at the home of Prof. S. B. Laird and was a thoroughly enjoyable one.

Alumni Notes

E. Artley Gee, who is at present superintendent of schools at Bellaire, Antrim county, has been called to the superintendency of the schools at Mancelona, Mich., at a good advance in salary. Mr. Gee graduated from the Central high school, Detroit in 1911, and from the Normal College here in 1914, and in the meantime has made up a year's work at the University. His first engagement was as principal of the Mancelona schools where he served two years as superintendent of the Bellaire schools. He will return to his first love at Mancelona as superintendent. His many friends here are glad to hear of his promotion.

Miss Ethel Johnson, of Norway, and Miss Josie Eilers, of Montague, normal students, instead of going home on their vacation, went to factories with literature of the War Savings Stamps.

Clare N. Burt, writes from "Somewhere in France" as follows:

"It is pretty cold here just now, but I guess that it can't hang on all the month. Thanks very much for the papers. . . I heard from Hewitt Smith a few weeks ago. He was then packed and ready to go. I suppose that he is here now. Is Arlo Bennett there yet? Well I guess that I'll blow the coop, I can't write what I would like to so I have to make them short."

O. H. Gillett, '13, is Superintendent at Fowler, where he has been for the past five years.

Clinton A. Springer, B. Ed., '16, is now teaching Science and Athletics in the Buchanan High School. He is doing his second year of work there, but expects to be in the Medical Officers' Training Camp, Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. He says, "We also have Helen Townsend of Detroit, B. Ed., '14, as Principal and Mathemat-
Sadie M. Way, '16, is instructing in Roscommon and is enjoying her work very much. She says that she finds small community life very different from that in her home city of Grand Rapids.

Jean Armour Mackay, located at Middleville, tickles our vanity by saying that the dollar for the News is the last thing that she should knowingly forget.

Irma Cilley, '17, is filling the position of Latin and English instructor in the Inlay City High School. She likes her position and says that they are very proud of their progressive High School.

Clara M. Swales, '17, "I look forward to the Normal News each week as I would a letter from home. I am teaching Second grade in North Branch.

Lucy E. Menery could hardly get along without the News because she is enjoying it very much. How queer!

H. W. Jennings, '11, writes, "Although the classmates have left, I enjoy learning and keeping in touch with the school and faculty. In addition to my job of teaching Manual Training and Mechanical Drawing in the High School here at San Dimas, California, in two grammar schools, I am coaching track and baseball. On March 23, we held the track meet of our league of the two Los Angeles County Schools here. I have been Secretary of the league for two years also baseball and track Manager. I am very busy but have lots of love and pep for the work."

Anna M. Dougherty is teaching the Seventh grade, in the Seattle Public Schools, and finds Seattle a wonderful city.

Helen A. Feldmeyer is teaching in Detroit.

Arthur G. Bury, of Cedar City, writes, "I have been teaching here for the past two and a half years. I enjoy the work. I have charge of the upper Grammar grades and first year of High School. My best wishes to the Instructors and to the Normal College."

Mrs. Ethel Shaughnessy, nee Barnes, is teaching the Second grade in Pontiac.

Livia Youngquist, located at Fort Hays Kansas Normal School, Hays City, Kansas, says, "The Spring term opens today. Then follows a nine weeks Summer term with a large attendance." All good things of life are coming her way, because there is plenty of rain which means wheat and more wheat.

SEEK UP BOOBS

TO LEAD "AMBY,"

It's real pleasant to take a little ride thru the air every day or so propelled by hoof on a nice steed.

And of course we are not allowed to seek revenge, all we can do is come back and pet him and tell him "he did a good job and that you enjoyed your trip" and he will immediately repeat the operation.

Well we go on rides once or twice a week and the officers come around with their own horses and tell you to get your saddle and saddle up. We go and saddle up a horse, any one we happen to come to and proceed to mount him. Some of them are all-right and some of them give you a nice boost to mount the telephone poles along the corral.

I tried to get in the aviation corps for the mere love of flying, well I didn't get in but have made many flights without a plane either. But on the whole, it's quite sport and affords excitement. Without some form of excitement, military life would be one long drudge. But along with breaking horses and rookies we get along pretty well.

I am working at Division Headquarters for a few weeks mustering in these new men that arrived the past week. There are eighteen of us working here and we enjoy the work. It gives us a change from the daily drill and we are up here where we can see things. There is another M. S. N. C. graduate here in the office by the name of Hendershot. I don't know as you knew him or not. We are here where we could see the new selects roll in and also see the finished soldiers roll out.

For the past few days the boys have rolled in at the rate of 1800 or so a day and "believe me" we welcome them here. They are greeted by the boys yelling "where you from?" "where you going?" and "you're in the army now." Anything to make life pleasant for the rookie. Has "Ryne" came to camp yet. I rather expected him on this call. While I sit here whitening a train load has just pulled in from Camp Dodge. They are trained and are filling up with the engineers which will soon go across. By the way, Hutchinson and Grandy are in the engineers. Did you know them? I met them a few days ago, and also saw "Bink" Barnes but not to speak to him. He is at the officers' training school. A bunch left this p. m. for some eastern camp to complete their training and across they go to fight the Hun.

Mrs. Banks sent me the Normal News and I certainly appreciated them. I have read and reread them until I can almost quote the ads from memory.

Well I guess I'll have to draw this to a close and go to work or the captain will think I'm cheating the government. I was certainly glad to hear from you and would be equally glad to hear from any of the boys. Just use your influence on a few and see if you can get any results.

Well work has come in and is piling up here on the desk so I'll have to blow the whistle for this time. Give my best to the boys and answer soon.

Fraternally yours,
"Amby."

THE GREAT WAR

Mills Wilbur, son of Prof. and Mrs. H. Z. Wilbur with the 125th Infantry in overseas service, in a letter dated March 8th writes of war preparations and life on the French front.

His company has recently been issued steel helmets and has been moved a two days journey toward the battle line, and are now in hearing of the big guns.

In a letter dated March 17th which arrived Friday, Mr. Wilbur says:

"Our company has just been dismissed after standing in formation for an hour for Sec. Baker and Gen. Pershing."

Portia Notes

The Portia Literary Society has made two quilts for the Belgian babies for the Ypsilanti Red Cross and are now working on a third one. This work has been done at their regular meetings in addition to their literary programs.

Two of our girls have been chosen honor teachers for this term, Wilda Bayes in the third grade and Grace Beacom in the first grade of the Training school.

Marion Thomson has been honored by being chosen by Dean White to enter a woman's training camp at Washington, D. C. This is made possible by a scholarship given by the D. A. R. Board of Michigan. Miss Thomson will enter the camp the 19th of this month to take a course in reconstruction work consisting of weaving, modeling, dietetics, preparation of sick trays, and the writing of current events. The camp life consists of military marching and drilling and is similar to the training in an army cantonment. After finishing the course, her work will be to lecture and demonstrate throughout the country.

SUCCESS OF VAUDEVILLE IS CERTAIN

What could be more delightful than to hear three artists play on stringed instruments for your entertainment? That is what is planned for you. The men who will play have played before the public for years and have a repertoire of pieces that is excellent.

A few more of the leading features of the Vaudeville have now been disclosed. More numbers just as good will be presented when the time comes around. You'll make a mistake if you are not there with all your relations.

Those in the Vaudeville will please appear for rehearsal on Monday night and again on Wednesday night for the last and dress rehearsal at 7:30. Practice in private and get your parts down even finer than you have them now.

distinction of France and England Heavy indemnities, control of the sea by Germany, and other impositions would make these nations suffer slavery. Then would come the turn of the United States. We would have to meet this foe single handed.

"Now, I have two reasons which satisfy me that this great nation of ours will never fall into the trap that past nations have and go down into destruction and oblivion. In the first place, while the older nations had superstitions only, we have the large body of science. We know the cause and the effect of events. We see the decay of other nations, observe its cause and take means to prevent it. We can guard against any downward tendencies and thus take steps to prevent our downfall.

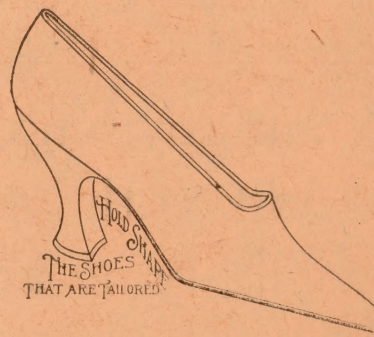

"Our ideals are entirely different from those of the ancients. Zeus would not be admitted into polite society. Here is the second reason, we have Christian religion. This religion has put into the world a moral ideal that is supreme, the highest that has ever been conceived by the brain of man. Because of this we have democracy which, I believe, was made in Heaven, and its principles are those of the Christian religion and are taken directly from it. With this democracy there comes free speech, the means of letting people express their feelings and thus blow off a lot of steam that if kept in would act as has the controlled speech of Russia. Free speech causes evaporation of a lot of illdigested political ideas that are going thru a process of mental putrefaction. It is a protection against anarchy.

"Righteousness and truth will win in this conflict but we must pay the awful price."

The "Putitoffs."

My friend, have you heard of the town of Yawn,
 On the banks of the River Slow,
 Where blooms the Waitawhile flower fair,
 And the soft Goeasys grow?

It lies in the valley of What'stheuse,
 In the province of Letitslide,
 That tired feeling is native there—
 It's the home of the listless I don't-care,
 Where the Putitoffs abide.

MIDDY BLOUSES

This week you'll find a special display of Goody Middies and Smocks. The quality of material and workmanship, coming made in the smart styles, make this line one of the leaders in the Middy field.

The regulation Middy in plain white or with the colored collars, are exceptionally favored. The Smocks are smart for sport wear and are shown in a variety of color and design. When you see these garments you will notice how every detail is finished.

The quality of this line has enabled us to be one of the largest users of Middys in the state.
